

CHRISTIAN BRAVO

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

PROFILE

I'm a proven Frontend developer with a passion for web development using modern technologies. I have a great passion for UI effects, animations and the creation of intuitive and dynamic user experiences.

As a true team player, I'm at the forefront of working alongside other developers, graphic designers, and user experience specialists to ensure quality products and deliver the best possible customer experience.

In my career, I have faced multiple challenges and I know the good practices from the bad, I can communicate well with technical and non-technical people, I have great attention to detail and I'm able to grasp the things that others miss.
